NEWEST OF THE COURSES offered is a two-unit class in theory of color, listed in the college catalog as Photography 20. Offered by Hanson Williams, a professional photographer, and for the last year a full-time member of the college instructional staff, the class will be given from 6:30 to 8:20 p.m. on Thursday evenings.

Photography I is recommended as a pre-requisite. The course will cover elements of color photography.

Project Prayer to Back Silent Meditation Bill

Efforts by Assemblyman Charles E. Chapel (R-46th District) to introduce a bill requiring all public schools in California to set aside time for prayer at the beginning of each school day have been endorsed by Project Prayer.

The organization's 3.5 million members will back Chapel's efforts, Sam Cavnar, national executive director of Project Prayer, said today. Chapel wants a law adopted in California which is similar to one now on the books in Massachusetts. It would require all public schools to set aside one minute for silent prayer and meditation at the beginning of each school day. "We do not believe in forced prayer for any child," Cavnar said, "for that would be taking away the right of freedom of religion or freedom of thought."

"Likewise," he continued, "we believe a child who wishes to pray — anywhere, in school, at home, in the church, or on the street — should have that right."

Check on Hospitals Requested

A full report on the practice of private hospitals requiring a deposit of from $40 to $100 from Medicare patients has been called for by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Hahn asked County Superintendent of Charities William Barr to inform the Board of Supervisors fully on the practice, which reportedly is widespread in Los Angeles County.

"It is wrong for hospitals to require a deposit from elderly, sick people before they are admitted," Hahn said.

Hahn said many elderly, sick people are brought by relatives to the hospital admitting ward and it "causes embarrassment if they do not have the deposit necessary to be admitted."

He acknowledged that Title 18 of the Medicare Act calls for patients to pay, a small portion of their medical services, but added, "it does not require that a sizeable deposit be paid before a sick person is admitted to the hospital."
